RULES OF THE VERMONT STATE LIBRARY.

RULE 1. Books may be taken from the State Library by the Governor, and Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs; Members of the Senate and House of Representatives; Heads of Departments; Judges of the Supreme Court; State Superintendent of Common Schools; Superintendent of the Vermont State Prison, and Superintendent of the Insane Asylum.

RULE 2. The State Library shall be kept open during the session of the General Assembly or Constitutional Convention or while a Committee of the House or Senate may be in session, and at such other times as may be necessary for the convenience of Members; and the privilege, to Members of the General Assembly or Constitutional Convention, of drawing books from the Library is limited to the time they may be in session.

RULE 3. No law works nor books presented by the United States or any State, or received through Vattermare's system of International and Literary Exchange, shall be taken from the Library except for the use of the two Houses of Assembly, and the Committees at the committee rooms during the sessions of the General Assembly.

RULE 4. A minute of every book drawn out from the Library shall be entered upon a memorandum book kept by the Librarian, and all books so delivered shall be returned to the Library previously to the final adjournment of the General Assembly, and every person to whom books are delivered shall be responsible for their return.

RULE 5. The State Librarian shall keep a schedule containing all the books of the State Library, with the numbers of each, and shall keep a book of records, in which all donations and purchases of books, engravings or maps shall be recorded.

RULE 6. The State Librarian shall procure to be bound ten copies of the session Laws, and ten copies of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Vermont of each year, and one volume each of the session Laws and Journals of the different States in the Union, together with four copies of the Acts of Congress—all of which shall be deposited and preserved in the Library.

RULE 7. All necessary expenditures for the State Library shall be reported to the Governor and Joint Committee of the Library each year for their examination and allowance; and no money shall be expended except for purposes having for their object the improvement of, and desirable additions to, the State Library.

RULE 8. The State Librarian shall make an annual report to the Governor on the condition of the State Library, embracing all additions and donations made during the year—which report shall be communicated to the Senate for the use of the General Assembly, and published in the Journals of the Senate.

RULE 9. Every person shall be answerable for all damages done by him to any book, map or engraving belonging to the State Library; and in case of the loss of any volume belonging to any set, he shall procure a new volume or pay the value of the entire set; and all actions, brought for the enforcement of this rule, may be brought in the name of the State Librarian on behalf of the State of Vermont.

RULE 10. All Library rules and regulations, prescribed by the Governor, agreeably to the statute in such case made and provided, shall be published in the annual Legislative Directory ordered by the General Assembly.
